

Butte, Neb. July 21, 1905;

Dear friend -

Got hung over the last stage of my trip last night feeling well but terribly fagged. We go "to the end of nowhere" tomorrow and I'll write as soon as I can find time. It will be impossible to mail letters as soon as I write them since it's so far to the P. O.
but I'll do my best.

Marg.
