My dear Miss Belden,

We are to be here a couple of weeks more, probably, and my husband is in immediate need of one of the books that is probably in your keeping. If you can reach us at once Lebesch's Bonäre-Formen will be awfully grateful. If the book is too large to mail reasonably you could express it. If you are not in order, or separated from the book, or for any reason this is long in reaching you, don't bother but if we can leave the book here for a week or two days do send it.

I hope it won't be too much trouble, and that you are having a good summer.

Gratefully yours,

Mary E. Irwin

I'll pay my debts
on reaching home.
