

Sunday.

My dearest Boby & Curley, -

I wonder if you are getting a good rest today. I do so hope so. You crazy. I hear from you, & know that you are still alive, at least. I'm afraid you are too tired, but please don't save me, for then I shall worry for fear there is lots to worry about.

I find there is a good I didn't get and if you come across any of them, wonder if you could put them in some place together so that I will really get them at Christmas. For me thing, I didn't bring any silver and if I am ever

I have <sup>2</sup> a meal bought up stairs, I shall have to eat it, soup and all, with my finger, for they don't give silver with meals up stairs any more than the old song had bread with me with bare.
Then here was a beautiful linen shirt of Papes' or the Sugarbaker's or some body's that Guliana found and put some where for me. It had a pocket in the front. I told you that I left my fur and the frontoney blue lawn.
I have nothing else for the lawn only ne thickie for my self which is dirty at present. I didn't bring some of the pictures of Miss Poppy Lane that I always have in my bureau. I don't know how much the <sup>3</sup> I may have left.

There is one thing that I believe I'll ask you to send for you won't have to hunt for it & that is the first volume of Chaucer in the green books, the one that has about pronunciation. I have the paper one that you had sent last year but that is jumbled & this is the reason I want it so much. The two new teachers, the younger ones who are on this floor are in for work & also for saving money and we have arranged to teach each other things in exchange. I think this is my chance to take some thing in the line of voice culture & physical culture, gratefulness for you know that are up to & in another school too,

I may not have a chance Now Miss Farnam wants me to give her lessons in Chauncy particularly so that she can read it. She wants that for she needs it in toward the next diploma she is going to get. Now when we were talking about this Miss Citter was in it too, & she wanted to give the Chauncy, but as I wanted to give the English they fixed it up that she would give Turk's lessons.
Miss Farnam has already studied Chauncy & I have.

only visited <sup>5</sup> Mr. Wagner's class that year without doing the work at all though she didn't do any thing at all with pronunciation.
Maybe I ought to "fuss up" but it is a delicate point for me to "fuss up" me & I want to get some thing from her. That Aldine Minton I know is very well on the point of pronunciation, which even the Globe sent, I think.
You see she will know if I don't do well. She graduated from Geneva in '99. & had studied since at Columbia I think she last summer<sup>6</sup> at Harvard where she is taking a regular physical training course now I believe. She makes far more of this part than of the elocution & she doesn't read at all herself. It was just the other way with Louise. Miss Farnham has taught just now 2 years in a girls school in Salt Lake City.

I think she is nice. She since she has been studying at Harvard she has had such tremendous car fare & Miss Aitken since she went abroad last summer & I for you know why ~~most~~ are save money. Don't you think this is a chance for me to learn some things?

My work is heavier than last year but just busy last. It is lovely. Of course I have a class of rather small girls but then I have just English philosophy & Bible. I don't know yet what Bible I have. I never got any Bible books at home.
I did go and that Toronto Conventine Report I put in my suit case for the M. W. A. Sister Ream did go to Lakeside. I haven't talked with her yet but I guess she's about the same girl, alas! She is the me like a boy & so! she has had her hair cut off!

Cry being for a presention.

I must get ready for supper immediately & this must go right after.

Very very lovingly.

Ellen.
