

we can do for you before you come away. Carrie expects you to stay here for a time to get your summer wardrobe replenished.
I hope you will thank it but to do so, altho' I know how anxious you will be to go on to Chelton still in the end it will relieve you of anxiety about dress ~~which is~~ ~~great~~ which is desirable in the short & hurried months that intervene before you going so far away. May be I will go to O with you, for I think you need such a little boosting up. Tho' I do not think we can expect it that but I will or some bill knowing that is the best of Tom I'm afraid he I'll be funds & other no war the same at present I am we will as it is in I believe there is in total down in January it damp & drizzly evening - I alone, wish you were here but - I am glad you are not Aunt Caroline started for I there this morning to make some arrangements for Charles' next year boarding &c &c His Aunt Mary will probably not be in the old home, and the friends went here to amuse him for a complete change in the ^{Aunt E} will return Bremer printing on Thursday consequent ly it will seem lonelier here. I think Aunt Mary will probably be here some time today, & then I am going to try for Saturday the rest of the time. Uncle Jos, & family may come down next Sat - and stay over Sunday. They are all about worn out with fixing up houses, moving &c and Aunt C suggested his little vest, which I hope they can have before they go to Edgemoor I'm looking over some of my summer things I found a shirt waist in present style shall send it to you, it may save you some care about having one done up. My other are rather old style & short shirt waists, do there any thing
