

Seattle, Wash.

July 30th, 1907.

Dear Will:-

I hope it is not as hot in B. C. today as it is here. I think this is the hottest day we have had this summer. Fanny & Lijette went down town this morning and both were so exhausted when they got home that they went right to bed and I suppose they are still in "dreamland." Jimmy is also supposed to be there, but every once in a while I hear a faint "Eina, Eina", so I know that he Seattle last week to look for a house. They found just exactly what they wanted after looking only two days. Merrett they fortuitously found in a ten room house with six lots, not on Lake Washington, on the old Benton line. I have not seen it, but they seemed very much pleased with it.

Harry has gone up the "West Coast" again. We branded to see him for an account of his eyes. He had been here for ten days & done nothing but rest & sleep & eat, and is not where he is supposed to be.

By-the-way, I heard that you did not like Jimmy. Now, Will I gave you credit for being able to recognize a sweet child when you saw him, but I see that I gave you more credit than you deserved. He really is the best and sweetest child that ever lived, and I know that you would think so too if you saw more of him. But I'll drop the subject.
I suppose you know that Percy and his father & Clinton come to was feeling so much better that it seemed a shame for him to deliberately undo it all.

But his father and Percy said "go" so he did, and we are so anxious to have him come back. They want him to go East again and have his eyes treated for a month or so.

We were very glad to hear from Mary that your Mama is getting along so nicely. Are you still planning to go East in the fall?
Or are you so in love with B.C. that you can't leave? Percy gave us a lot of pictures, so I know that the scenery must be grand.

Well, the C. E. Convention is a thing of the fact. We saw quite a number of people we know. Miss Sage from Oberlin stayed with us, & so we heard all about the town & people. The Messiah concerts were a great success financially. The girls went and did not enjoy it very much, but every one else thought it was fine. I told the girls not regretted going back East for one minute.

Some people have poor taste!!
Did you know Mr. Dan Carle in Oberlin? He is practising law in Seattle now. Dan Holten is also here looking around for work.
I must stop now and get dinner. Why do people have to eat? It's a big nuisance I think!! I'm awfully glad that you are having such a successful summer, but I don't think it's good for you to work so hard that you don't have time to write to that it was because they had heard it so many times in Oberlin.

Of course they couldn't expect it to compare with a chorus of trained voices like the Musical Union.
Prof. Andrews was there the second night and I would like to have heard what he had to say about it.
He gave two organ recitals.

Perhaps you know that Martha is back in Oberlin and expects to be in the Associated Charities of Cleveland next year. She writes that she has your friends once in a long time.

All send love and best wishes.

Sincerely Your Friend
Edna.
