Dear Willie, -

Did I tell you I was not re-elected? Pres. Kroeger said he stood up for me in trustee meeting & wanted me back. Deary Heatte told Miss Brown he got just sick about it. Miss Brown & Miss Haupee & Miss Lovewright & Miss Quinlan all think I should come back. They think, as I do, that Miss Munro did some pretty spiteful work to get me out because of something I said to her a long time ago. I think I didn't write about that to you, and it is too long to go over now, but I was in the right & did not treat her badly. I feel almost heart-broken over the whole thing, & so does Ellen, I can see by her letter today. It must all be for the best, I suppose, but it is mighty hard. I am trying awfully hard to get another place. It is awfully late in the year, though, & I am so far away from any high adventure. Do pray for me to find some thing good. My beloved mamma doesn't know any thing about the matter yet + she must not feel she is much better. If they rent the house + I don't get a position, where am I to go! Oh, it seems too cruel.

I am glad you are doing so well. I hope you make as much as you expect when you take up another job. It is fine. I wish I could see you before I go home. If I go by the Canadian Pacific couldn't I see you at Vancouver, maybe?

Oh, I know you wouldn't blame me for being in this position if you knew all about it. You'll be sorry, of course. It seems as though such hard things do come my way.

Am I well, don't you?

Isn't it fine Mamma is improving so?

Love — Daisy.

Please don't say any thing about this to any one.
