

Dear Aunt Billie

and my sister your Aunt

I wish you were sitting right here beside me on this fine boat. But as you are not, do you want to console me by doing an errand for me?

"Oh yes Aunt, certainly!
Well then, you will find London $1.00 unless I forget to put it in. With it, will you please get for Mother a bunch of carnations - eight and if you can, for 50c of Some kind of a form that she can write & see your - all winter - with the other 50 c. I should be awfully obliged to you

I desire the earliest to be at her - nothing - please Christmas money at breakfast

& I will receive a card for you to see on - Is this asking too much of you Billie dear? Please be sure to have them on time
