

Seattle, Wash.

Oct. 19th, 1907.

Dear Will: -

I wonder what you are doing this Saturday evening.
If you were here I would chase you around the block in the fog, - for it is awfully foggy tonight. It does seem so queer to think of you back in old Oberlin! I wonder how many times you have gotten homesick for the Sound and gone you. Mr. Wooster is coming back to Oberlin, as he is out of a job, and doesn't like it out here. So Fred will be pretty lonesome.

Phoebe expensed the letter if it is chippy and disconnected, for Lydette is sitting here beside me and trying to get me to talk about her wedding. I can't make it seem real to me that she is to be married just nine weeks from ~~now~~ next Wednesday. She just said a minute up to look at the Water-Works fund. Percy wrote that Mr.

Van Horn preached on Sunday, so you have had one treat in Oberlin anyway.

Have you eaten all those ice-cream sodas for me yet?
If not, go right down to Tobins and begin.

I gave your message to Fred Wright the other evening when he was here and he said he was very sorry not to have seen ago that she wished you were going to be here, for she wanted you to sing "O, Thou Divine Sweet Evening Star."

Do you find it pretty hard to settle down to studying? Never mind! a month from now you will be so interested in it that you won't want to do anything else.

We have been having beautiful weather and have been making the most of it.

The other evening Harry hired an automobile and took Orlo and me out for several hours.

Then Thursday afternoon Orlo got a team and took Fanny + Harry and I out for a ride.
It was a beautiful afternoon + the horses were quite frisky so we had a very pleasant afternoon.

We have a checker board now and if you were here I would certainly beat you! At least, I at all now, but stay and have his eye treated. If Orlo goes I will probably go along.

Harry said I should tell you that she and the cuckoo were both home sick to see you cuckoo. The poor little bird has to make all the noise itself now.

Will you have time to take vocal? You certainly ought to take time, for it will give you and others more pleasure in the future than almost anything else. Well, hope you would be gentlemanly enough to let me beat me or two games in an evening. The first time I played with Orlo he beat me every game, and the next evening he beat every game but two, and those were both ties. Isn't that terrible?!

The boys expected to leave for the north yesterday but did not get off as they did not hear from Percy. Harry may not go Sizette has gone off to bed, but Fanny has come to bother me now, and keeps telling me to stop writing and talk to her, so I guess I'll have to do it.

Please don't study so hard that you haven't time to write us a little note once in a while to let us know how you are getting along. Good-bye for this time and Good-Night

Sincerely Your Friend
Edna.
