

My dear Lintie: - Only a few words to go with this from Mary. We are having a fine time & my thoughts are too stirred up to settle to much letter writing.

As you know Aunt Mary was here ^{the day we} came - for the day - . On Wed. ^{this morn} Aunt Mary Mertude & Grandma came. The two former went away the next day, leaving Grandma who will remain until I go.
I don't know exactly when that will be, so you can address Care Rev. W. S. Stiles, Dyonia Pa. until I write you of a change.
We may spend a few days in Scranton.
Tom Stiles & Mally came yesterday for a few days - that is, Tom will only be here nights. They are moving from Scranton to Harrisburg where Tom has a fine position in connection with the State tuberculosis investigations. He goes to Glen Summit tomorrow - any or all of us - to spend the day with the Aberthons (their country place). Their father + mother are on the ocean returning from Europe. Louise, Melno + Henry have taken lunch here. Louise is engaged to Prof. Dickey of McCormick Seminary Chicago, Melno is a senior at Bryn-Mawr, Henry graduated at Princeton, + is now studying architecture in Boston "Jack". Agnes de-Scheviniity (Sara's friend from Bryn-Mawr) has been here most of the time, and others coming + going. Aunt Lily + I lunched with Mrs. Sayre at Pittston one day.

Tell Mr. Riggs when you see him, as she is his relative, I told her about him + his family. She was very much interested. She is a beautiful old lady in character + person.
Uncle Scott is away this week.
He + Ellen are at Oyster Bay visiting Uncle S's College chem. Mr. Swan.
The latter's place joins Pres. Rowan

3

& he & the Pres. are friends from boy-hood. Uncle S. & Aunt L. have met the Pres. there. Mr. Swan is quite musical, & Ellen & he are to play at some private musical. of course Mr. Swan is wealthy.

I eat breakfast in bed, and Aunt Lily does, and I am quite luxurious every way & rested. I am beginning to be crazy to get at my drawing system for I have idled nearly long enough.

I continually remember things I have left undone at Oberlin & my heart is there a good deal of the time. You & Selden will have to make up for my defects.
I hope you will both keep me posted about everything - good, bad, & indifferent - , money matters & all.

I had a very satisfactory letter from Mrs. Nunn this Am., telling about cats, garden, house, &c. &c.
She is most reasonable and kind.
I am sure we are very fortunate.
Your things did not go till Thursday. I hope they did not get wet on the back porch, or anything lost. Did you say the book case was not to go?

Let Selden see this letter & Mary's, & send to Willie. He can destroy both. My love to friends in Huntsburg especially the B's.
Grandma got your letter forwarded this Am.
She thinks you are grand. Yours loving Nannie Mama. E. S. Belden
