

Now we'll get some badly ^{and my letters} ~~but~~ ^{we have} written ^{things in them} ~~things~~ ^{in them} ~~so~~ ^{so} ~~My dear Mary,~~ ^{these were what mamma} ~~my~~ ^{wanted + my that} ~~Every~~ ^{one come early} ~~thing~~ ^{is going} ~~has not~~ ^{paid!}

about the same here, I think I guess mamma will go to Cleveland Saturday and she will have to be here two days before any thing can be done so that Dr. Allen can watch her. Mrs. Hawkins is going with her to stay until it is all over. I guess Evulvia + I will go up too.

This telegram came this morning from Miss DeVoy nice, isn't it?

Either Aunt M. or Aunt Fannie will come when mamma goes to the hospital to be with us here. Probably Aunt Mary we left it with her. I rather wish it might be Aunt Jennie. Destroy this.

The dear baby is awfully sweet. Yesterday we read her your letter that came Saturday night about going to Mrs. Hutton. It had made me ~~so~~ worrying with me just the best kind to read her. She asked if it didn't have any thing in about "Boozy". She thinks about you a good deal - hopes you take naps and don't drink coffee and so on.

Mrs. Davis is our great stand by. I feel very cheerful for I know that the very best is being done and that all will be for the best. The baby is cheerful too and that is a comfort - but she dread the operation. She said she didn't at all before ^{a mean when she was 17} but now she hasn't strength not to when you get this pray for peace & calm for her. The operation will probably be Tuesday, April 9. And don't you worry, Mary - it won't do any good and it may be that your calm and trust & faith may. My heart aches for you & Willie so far away but maybe when you next see us, mamma will be becoming a new woman. As Mrs. Davis says since Mrs.

Wagon went to ~~live~~ Dr. Allen she is around and the sprucest one in the neighborhood, very different from the invalid she used to be. Mrs. Hawkins has always said that mamma has every thing in her favor - a good heart, so essential in an operation, her disposition, temperament, and good constitution. As Evhria says there is nothing the matter with her but this. She has no ailment, you know.

I have done nothing about asking for some one for Belluig-hams here & may not be able to before you could write.

Ann is very well around the house, quiet and pleasant.
She's awfully home sick.

I must go. Good bye. Miss Poppy. Maybe things are quiet well with you now.

Your lovingest "Miss Tim"
