

Tuesday Evening
May 27th 1924

Really I am too tired to write a letter but if you will excuse a sort of poem like I'd like to talk a little with you before I go to bed - all the family are settled for the night - Caroline sleeps from eight or nine till 3 or 3.30 after her supper at 6.30 - then has a meal 3 or 3.30 goes to sleep again till 6 - or 6.30 & then after a meal sleeps again till some time rather early & is awake a while till her bath at 10.00 - has her meal at 10.30 sleeps mostly till 2.30 has a meal sleeps & wakes till her meal at 6.30 again - she is the best of the family but ever & - and hasn't she ~~been~~

Eyes Red? She is really a beautiful look, & I think that you would call May a real old fashioned baby - so soft and round, so strong & firm - she seems absolutely irresistible.

What I particularly wanted to write about was in some sense a reply to your good letter - & I want to say a great deal more than I shall -

In the first place I don't think advice is cheap & when it is given by any one who loves us you do - I considered it of great value, a worthy offering.

I agree with all you have to be most advised, ^(particular) ~~and~~ nearly (no doubt partly because of your advice we are doing the very things you think good.
