Dearest Evangeline

I shall leave here

12.56 tomorrow and

N. Y. at 5.50. Don't meet me if not convenient.

I'll bring one of your suit cases. But I guess I can manage them myself.

I telegraphed Tom to-day our plans so he'd have time to make his.

I also wrote Mollie. I didn't write sooner because I was waiting to hear
from Sara Atherton.
I am very sorry she can't go for she is such a dear girl.

I was in N. Y. yesterday.
I went to a beautiful
memorial service in Old Trinity at noon.

I saw George Searing
in Manufacturers' Bldg.
I saw his Bowman ( Paines one). Had my teeth examined. Dr.
R. can see nothing
yet. But says I must have some tartar cleaned off and then maybe

he can find what makes candy hurt on one side.
I'm thankful no
"yawning craters" are visible anyway.

It is so cold. I'll be glad of my winter suit
on the trip, I guess.

much love - he are all
well. I saw Carrie Kough in train. The children and I took my telegram to the station

this a. m. and they thoroughly enjoyed
the trip! They got ships off of the old
willow tree that blew
down from the "old
castle" yard yesterday.
Selena went with
us.

I am so eager for the trip. If it reaches you write to me will you?
Papa wrote he was getting me a present

I was so distressed
because I was sure
I had said we were going by "airbill". I asked him to countermand the order. But I thought if it should rain and you should go by train I could use it if Papa had got it already. But I hope we aren't going

by train. Don't bother to answer about this.

I am only talking about it. I was so sorry Papa asked for a pass since it is so unnecessary.

Love. Eutaw
