service for the college, I would take five per cent. of the collections I might obtain. At the same time let me say again, that I do not feel able to go much if any beyond the people who found at the Sanitarium here. If I should, & be at any expense, I suppose such expenses would be repaid some.

The meeting of our Union occurs June 10-17, and I shall still be occupied for a fortnight or so afterwards with matters germane to the same.

Dear Doctor Knox,

The trustees of a struggling academical institution once offered me ten percent. of <sup>my</sup> collections if I would try to raise an endowment for it. That is the only figure of the kind that affords me any basis of knowledge for answering your request. I should not deem it proper either to ask on to take such a proportion of any money that I might raise for São-Paulo. But inasmuch as your question must be answered, I will say that if you think it is worthwhile to look to me at all for any

Dear Dr. Knox,

I shall be very glad to look over the materials for the São Paulo work whenever you choose to send them, & will try to do something as soon as this I. M. U. Meeting leaves me at liberty. But as to compensation, the whole question of my usefulness is so problematical that I think that had better be left out altogether for the present. If I seem to earn anything I shall be entirely willing to leave any possible remuneration to you brethren; also to drop the work at any moment you prefer. With regards to Dr. Hodge, who has been kind of me at Bristol, Conn, I am yours
