

on the hill. I look longingly for my three dear girls - for Willie and above all for that precious red sunbonnet.
Has the owner of the sunbonnet attended the meetings with the same solemnity which he took to the "Kinnier's"?

Miss Hows has been with me for a few days - which was a great pleasure to us.
She regretted very much that you were not here. She would have been so glad to meet you - but she looked with interest at the pictures which I prize so much, and was delighted with your "Kinnier" as you had been with hers. Her Kinnier has just come into such an inheritance of his father's clothes - that she brought up some little dresses, which she thought would just fit our Janet - for they are not too small for her. I will send them by mail. (express called) & will you please ask one of the

We judge from that that he is improving all the time, and when we think of the delightfully congenial atmosphere which surrounds you - we try to be thankful that you are there - yet we miss you so badly that it is pretty hard being thankful about that.

These warm days of the past few weeks - I have taken Maria & Anne quite often and as we pass the school house

girls to write me if they do fit time - for I do not want to flood you with unlucky things - and know you must be rather cramped for room any way just
now. So will not want anything that cannot be put to immediate use.

We are getting on as usual here - only dear Grandma feels very weak, these hot days.
She quotes all the Bible verses about old good deal of our attention as usual.

Dear Mrs Belden my little birthday book tells me that tomorrow is your birthday, and I am anxious that this little note shall arrive in time to carry with it a very large amount of loving wishes for the coming year.
Be your birthday bright and calm.
Would my love could wear a charm to ensure you from all harm."

Surely a special birthday blessing will be yours this year - In every day of the year you have been such a help and inspiration & advice - You cannot know how I miss the spiritual tonic of your presence - for you can never know what your life has been to me.

Remember each of us to Mr Belden kiss every one of the dear children and tell Mary I am looking for a letter from her - They will be interested in knowing that the Endearment Review age. and says they are wonderfully description.

But they are not cheerful.
About nine of the young people - many of whom Mr. Holden saw before he left are coming into the Church in July, and Mr. Hales is getting very worn and tired over those awful calls he is making as conscientiously.
I really heartily for his strength.

It is delightful to have Miss Root home once more - and to see a

Enclines Money

Mrs Rev'd J^{ms} H. Belden
Clifton Springs
N. J.

1/2
Mrs Bairdell -)