

187

My dear Caroline and Ellen

I hardly know what I wrote about yesterday did I tell you that Chas. died with Pneumonia from the grip the Dr. said the med. had no effect he died very peacefully - trusting in the Saviour - We have not heard from Madison - Annie is nearly heartbroken - cried a long time last night, and is sleeping now 9 o'clock. This is a great sorrow. It seems so hard for the young to suffer. but in this world we shall have tribulation & we must learn the lesson sooner or later - Chas. will be taken to Shawnee - Maggie says she supposes that will be her future home and she wants him near there will be a service here quite early and then go on the 11 AM. train Maggie says this lot is beautifully situated near the Delaware - I know it is lovely there - The friends & every body about here are very sympathetic & kind. It was a favorite very when

The Undertaker from Stroudsburg came last eve to Embalmer the body - Then there will be no need of ice which Maggie objected to. Annie has just waked up & Nelly is dressing her. next to Jenny she wants Millie - I hope you are all pretty well - and we will be glad to see you next week when you return - Much love to all from your aff Mother

Mrs. W. H. Belden

Scanton

Pa

