

Wabash College.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Feb. 10th 1879

Rev. W. H. Belden,

My Dear Sir,

Let me even though so far away send a word of hearty congratulation to you on the occasion of your marriage. From the standpoint of my own experience I am glad you have ventured, and possibly Mrs. T. would venture to say the same to your wife.

In former years I had a pleasant acquaintance with Mr. Selden Scranton, who occasionally spent a sabbath at Rockaway. If he is the father-in-law to whom you are indebted for a wife, I present him my kind remembrances. Give Mrs.
B. our best wishes.

Very Truly Yours
Joseph F. Tuttle.

Return to PRESIDENT OF WABASH COLLEGE, CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind.,
If not delivered within 10 days.
