

Oxford, July 3, 1882.

Dear Frank,

Yours of today has just reached us, and we will come with pleasure. As it happens, we can't possibly come before tomorrow evening or Wednesday noon; & as I suppose it will be more to your convenience to have a definite date, I will say we will come Wednesday, in the train leaving here at 7 p. m. We can't get the babies started as early as the morning train (7⁰⁷). I am very sorry we can't come while Mill is at Dover; but we are making final preparations to go elsewhere for the summer & have several things to do before we can leave. If your letter had come before Mill

came up we could have done
otherwise.

We expect to see Bert & Florence also a few days before we go to Massachusetts.
had a letter from him this noon along with yours.

Yours affect.

Millie.
