

you were going to be here for it.
And I told M. also that we would be glad to have Athens come for the week end, of the L.E. crowd, & suggested Miss Lovejoy or Athens also, she and you agree on. To go ahead, Pally, I have a woman suggested to come for whatever I need - shall have her clean the spare room tomorrow, maybe wash curtains &c. if the day is good. I'll try to get all done before Sunday, or if not, as soon as possible after that. So you don't need to hurry home on that account. Sunday school M.L. comes Thurs. night.

and no one is less than that.

The woman who is to come tomorrow is 40^{cts} an hour.

So if you have a plan in case the L. E. people come for the week end, let me know in time to engage Miss H.

No more now. Destroy such a bad looking letter.

I may not write you before you start, arrange as you choose about the guests.

Ever your loving
Nanema

2 / I am afraid Ellen will be too disappointed if you don't stay even one night, so I'll try to be generous and spare you, although you mustn't stay there too long. I am awfully homesick where you live. But don't come for the work. If we have any extra entertaining, I want to engage Miss Humphrey - if you know long enough ahead so we can get her. She was splendid help this fall, she knows our ways & the place now. She is three dollars a day ^{& hours}
