

I have been reading a most interesting tale of Lyme Connecticut in an old Harpers Magazine 1878 with such wonderful accounts of ^{He was my father's cousin. He} ~~Morison~~ R. ~~Wailo~~ ^{was Chief Justice of the U.S.} and other distinguished people who have lived there in times past. The article or rather the paper it is printed on is almost worn out and I must see if I can find a copy in some old book store or possibly from Harpers. I am just crazy to go through Connecticut and with you look up our ancestors. Oh I was just thrilled as I was reading this article. an inspiration to try and live up to ones forefathers! and now thankful for our forefathers. You see you are the genealogist of the family now. since our dear father has gone. Oh what a store of knowledge he had and which in thought would always be available - What a great pity he did not do more writing down of his valuable historical knowledge - and also that Uncle Selous did not comply with Edmund's urgent invitation to accept of a Stenographic hint to the history of Scravelin. Do you know Mrs Mary Elmsled Logan's - Well she lives here nearby and I see her once in a while She told me the other day that she had been up to Scravelin to Oelotus to help celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the 1st Church of Scravelin. That is the first I ever heard of it. I suppose she would have been an old resident and then married to Dr Logan's son - Well I must not mole-anter mind - as I have matters to such this afternoon and it is time to get ready for dinner - Good bye to you and Elna & Henry - and love - Yours aff. Sister Mary.
