Of course you will write Mr. ...
I hope to be here when we go and look at the house.

Dear Mary:

I sent a letter this a.m., since then received another from you. I explained that we would close on Tuesday a.m. next week. Aug 11th and now it would be impossible to change back this week and tomorrow already Friday. Lewisburgh is far away and Andrew Leiser wants everything so settled.
He has been told to meet me on next Wednesday Aug. 12th and on the 11th Tuesday I leave here with the 10th o'clk train to N.Y.
Remain over night with Edith and she takes me to the train which passes Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, etc. and Lewisburgh about 4 o'clk.

We are ~~not~~ eating what we need in the ice-box and the pantry, etc. The grape fruit seems all right to leave and the butter - and what is not, Marie can take home, and wait there until she sees you again.

We dried all the clothes on chairs in the parlor - not that they were wet only needed to be put away in perfect condition.

The laundress will no doubt send her bill when you return - and the enclosed is the bill from the Washington Laundry - Est Ficketts.

Mrs. Peakes will go to Mrs. Barclay to finish looking over things that need attention preparatory to sending for them when she settles in a little home for herself and her sister. C/o Mrs. Barclay, in the Am. Sav. house would reach her after she

I will leave the slips from from the bakery, ^{and} market on your desk - and the special one from the milk man.

To morrow will tell him to come only once more.

I am afraid that Marie has not been quite truthful I gave her a lesson on Honesty. I told her I was responsible; first to God and next to you for the table, ^{the household} etc - as you would like it etc - and best of all for Mrs. P.'s superior tasty things to use up left overs - She will be (Marie) looking for you to return to her old place.

I will go for the mail these few days when she prefers to be home.

The enclosed needed another stamp - (they held it at the P.O.)

and so I put on another stamp. The place looks beautiful so green and that new bed is quite grown. I presume when you return you will have corn, squash, etc.

I told Marie that she had better tell Mrs. K. that we did not need her next week for the wash: but she said it was not necessary she would know if she ^{was} did not go there on Monday.

Wm. I told you has been a few times to inquire if you have returned: he is waiting I think, some pay.

I will have Mr. P. close the house on Tuesday A.M.

I think this is all, excepting we all hope you are improving and able to come to your home
