

POST CARD.

Miss Ellen S. Belden
Glendale, Ohio,
Glendale,
Ohio.

namo, P. C. Engineer was killed. A switch
had been left open
a few feet beyond
the switch, which was standing open. All the people in the front of the T. C. C. noticed it. It was the whole family
also found out
then which the person
the person

The other side. I thought I had found a
to come on Please write to me
I am
I am
I am

Selden.

Water Works, Oberlin, O.

... was a head-on collision of two birds

Trains, One engineer
was killed. A switch
had been left open
& a thro freight mashed into another, which was standing still. All happened right in front of depot. Cars mashed to splinters.
The whole front of depot platform covered with corn which one of the cars. I brought home several large ears of corn as souvenirs.

Please write to me on a picture postals as I am making a collection

Seldern.