

delightful. Miss Cotton and I went as my treat. I was glad to laugh a little for I have felt so blue today.
My cold is a terror but I guess it will go soon.
My voice is more natural.
Who do you think I saw
here at this hotel today?
Miss May Raesby and her sister Lois. I was so glad to see them. They asked particularly about you and Evangeline and sent remembrances. They were just here to luncheon, I think.

I have seen Miss Kent, here, several times and she was at "Greg & My Heart" today. She seems to be quite left with Rheumatism or something.

I wish Isabel's letter had had a date. I wonder when and on what she sailed.

Is she married?

Will you need this to Evangeline I am too tired to write her also. I am awfully tired.
