

hard lessons and so not so much time for these.
Just think how busy Mary and Ellen have to be at their studies, and if you could see how Evangeline and Gertrude work too. All the dollies and dear Topsy (the Kitty) and Lord Lambertoy hardly get any attention. But I wish you could see Topsy dressed in doll's clothes. She seems to like anything Evangeline does but she looks too funny for any thing. I will try to get a picture of her to send you. It is time I was off to bed almost 11 o'clock so I will send you some good night

My dear little Charles Selden Ever since I received the dear little book you sent me, I have been wanting to write to thank you for it. I enjoy it very much indeed, and shall use a great many things from it to keep me and the lots of boys and girls here in Oxford whom I teach every week.
I wish I could have you too but I know your dear Mamma and Papa would be so lonesome if you were away. You were always such a good sweet little boy I loved to have you write me. And that makes me think of a little hymn we have been learning last week. I will tell it to you but perhaps you know it.

When you come here we will try to sing it together.
"God make my life a little light Within this world to glow A little flame that burneth bright Wherever I may go!

God make my life a little Flower That giveth joy to all Content to bloom in nature's bower Although its place be small" How are you getting along with your Obedience card? and how do you like it?
How you enough love for it to wait me to send you the Truthfulness card. I hope so I think they have on them so many good verses, that will help us now, and as long as we live. You have so much time now, to study these verses and when you get older you will have so many other
