

Evangelene dearie -

Just a line or two to you for I intended telling you yesterday - that before we came away you Afghan came, & Sister not only worshipped at the shrine of its exquisite beauty - but she folded it in a big big towel and sent it to all the faculty to see - they had seen her other things before - I think by way of our what the most exquisite one piece that has been used - It is simply beautiful in every detail - bias stitching included -

Eighteen mile route as soon as she can - she says she is going to have the towel kept six times so she can carry that Afghan one the arm for it is too dainty for ordinary use - In all so awfully glad it came while we were here to put it away -

The whole outfit for the towel is simply lovely.
I want to tell you each time - Will some day the whole is wonderful better - I think so!

Ester has said all along that she is going to leave her party on March 22nd - they want when she is not and ready - she has changed in appearance greatly in the last 24 hours - perhaps she will come enough to go flying to the Belknap Hospital for tonight - who knows?

Our Sisters is perfectly lovely - she called to me this morning & said - Tom I just want to speak to you a minute - I am thinking your daughter might be called in the night and the red

² - How I am reduced to powder again -

I know your situation will be a perfect one -

Yes I do think a black curtain would be lovely with bright blue paper to add holes but Ester has just had me sent me green tea - yes well be lovely like that - either the blue you have (and if you don't want that why not get black you can use it later I'll have you know it is made Ester I mean your color be black with blue facings - it would be dark menopausal & still gay -

3/ Simply is that about the course of the day - he is too adored the part of my being - his recollections are simply "Angel Brought Angel Fair" - my name for him - you know? he loves his Mother very his years adorns her almost - he loves to hear me ^{at} the secret - This a m. he whispered to me as entering next out of the room - with the most engaging smile "Mamma has taken the liberty to the take room no her."

But - but - but - I must not write any more -

Dear love to you each -

I think after I write to uncle George he will let you all know.
The joy these days may not be too hard, & that they all live
