

Dear Ellen
Miss C. is a perfect —
She makes me mad & I don't see why.
She has as little sense as well as delicacy.
She is far worse than crazy.
Cunt M. & Evangelina rather just sent us two beautiful blue silk lined suits both with long jackets fitted at the waist. One is velvet the other serge. They fit me but I sort of hate to begin on them for they aren't quite new. I wish I had had them in the fall & then it would have been all right.
Could you use either one? Are there other things from home that you want me to send you? I can just as well not.
I am crazy over your picture & wish I could see it. If it is to take for the workst you can send it somewhere else for a cover design. Try anyway.

The Independent is offering prizes for Cover designs. I will cut out the advertisement & send you. The Ind. is always perfectly fair in its dealings - a high class paper every way. The head is not what they want, but there are other things you could do for them, & the head will come in use for something, sometime.

Shall I send you a sample cover, or do you remember them, or see them?

I went to church this morning riding into the Centises. Dr. Bradshaw's sermon was fine. This evening Amy has gone with Erelina to Y.W. where Prof.
Brewer answers questions. From there they were going to a Stereopticon address by Prof. Pearson at the First Church. I have been reading, and now am off to bed. We have two nice boys in the room Selden had, & he is in the other be one. Your loving - mamma -
