

Dear Ellen Feb 5, Wed. 1906.

I am sorry the design did not get back to you before. Mamma + I both think it is the prettiest design we have ever seen for the Independent. I who has not previously been so fond of the design think this is perfectly lovely. Mamma thinks only the flowers might be darkened a little. Her

2.

system insists
on having everything
dark which is to be reproduced. The size & color are right, Mamma says.

Mamma thinks
your book for your missionary class is better than the one she had suggested. Mamma

3.

thinks Mrs Davis
will try to go in the Spring if really wanted.

I sent Mary the History of Philosophy book. I had to take Ethics instead of Hist. of P. + had to pay two dollars
for a second hand book.

Last night I certainly had a grand treat in hearing Macbeth
with the Ben Greet
people in Warner
hall. It was beyond description wonderful & horrible. It is certainly a play
to be seen as well as read. I never realized how well it was arranged in rising + falling

 action and dramatic thought. There was not scenery but the words spoken told volumes.
 Really I never supposed it could be so good.
 I only had standing room, (50¢) was all I could get at last minute

6.

311

but sat on steps with several girls. Mrs Wager was there. She seems to be improving.

I have been reading Mrs W's ^{copy of the}
her life + letters of E. B. Browning in relation to George Sand, & one of Mr. W.'s essays. She took me into his study to