

1144 Love to Miss Lundberg & Miss Kuroki.

comfortable and warm and clean in our suite. I have engaged Black Mary to come a half a day next week, for there is quite a collection of things to wash.

I had such a sweet little visit up in Sara's suite, over our teacups. I told the girls they must not feel responsible for me now that you are gone, that I mustn't go too often and so on, but they really made me feel that it was a pleasure to them to have me. I am going to have them down to dinner some night soon, before moving starts + stirs up things.

I thought of you often today + hope that your conference was satisfactory all around. I shall hope to hear from you and badly. The little is wonderful. I was awfully glad to get your letter this Am.
I hope you almost took it to N.Y. Hope you found Aunt May & Lorette.
I hope you will I have to have some of the little things you & I I am to be of a Children's Bureau I suppose it will be necessary to send in a daily report. Well, I am sure I have done seven hours work today, although I forgot to keep exact record of the time As I wrote you last night, the day went for nearly nothing, but after nearly nine hours sleep last night, I arose this morning.

Don't reflect from raw eggs - sure. Boy doing fresh ones, + still Miss Anthony from mother makes you take them. Morning in fine condition, and I have had a most successful day. I went right at cleaning the suite as soon as I had eaten breakfast, and I never finished it until four P.M. stopping my work only long enough for lunch. It looks so clean in 17 that I have to walk around and admire everything. I appreciate it by contrast, for you remember the condition of everything when we left the house. Miss Hodge came in to see how I was getting along alone, and ask me up for 4³⁰ afternoon tea, and she was greatly impressed by our clean condition, and said "why you look as if everything had been scrubbed!" Mr. Foley (at my request) fixed our electric bells (while I was at work) and now we can hear distinctly to the vestibule, the basement, and the telephone booth! I told him I was afraid Mr's Miss reuter with such a bad bell service, and so he hurried up. It has been storming all day and I am so glad I don't have to go anywhere - it is so
