

THE HARVARD
SWARTHMORE
PENNSYLVANIA

My dear sister Elsie.

This is Saturday afternoon August 8th oh how the days just fly away! I must just tell you I am still here because the doctor does not think it safe to leave home but he is not coming now until Monday afternoon, was here yesterday. The pain is not all gone, but nothing to what it was, and I have been able to sleep in bed for the last three nights, and I am so thankful. Of course I am more than glad I obeyed though unwillingly Father's determination to have me see a specialist. I have been able to be a comfort to darling Gertrude in several ways - which were important. Have been able to visit in the old home as well as see the new mountain home and have

Some rides about here. And thus I have secured a lady Church worker to go up to Oxford with me, and I could not have found her, if I had not been here. I wish you had such good helpers as I have. This Miss Edwards, who is going home with me, is now waiting at Salem New Jersey. She has lived in Bridgeton - and remembers Wellman I understand. I am very anxious to not keep her waiting too long and yet I must be patient, for it would be foolish for me to go a hundred miles away from my Dr This Mrs Gertrude and I have been fixing her dresses and slips that needed shortening.
She is so thick and the styles are so short it seemed to be a necessity. I am so glad I am able to help. - When I came I was so miserable I didn't even bring a trunk or a Fatting shuttle. Cousin Leares my name out this day to go to N.Y. I send the night with Edith who will stay here to Lewisburg I have a great ~~time~~ arranging matters of housekeeping at Oxford - I just wanted you to know I am a much better Len Wall Man.
