

So sorry I can't come now. I shall hope to manage it Wednesday a. m.

falls on.

Dear Mary: -

✓ Incls "goings on" as we have been hoping here.
When Will is home, something is moving. He has put some sort of rollers on four of my battered drawers so they come out at a touch. He has been three weeks at painting his car, preparing it by taking off rust etc, etc, then he painted my car.

Then I have bought a grand piano - at my age!!
When I left Dur and I sold the grand I bought in Portland on our new living room

2) here is only slightly larger than Evelina's. But 4 francs is repaying me some money I loaned her several years ago.
She has a substantial inheritance from her father who died last spring. And I gave her my child's console which is a very good piano.
Now I have 20 students I shall enjoy this new grand.

I hope Henry will be in Paris next Monday as will expect to come down there on Monday Sept. 23. Job my I am writing Henry to tell you this in case he is home.
My visit with you must be delayed again as I can't come now. Is Belden at his former address now. Hastily Sylvia
