

for HTP. or death
of Will Taylor. Sat pm

Dear Lucia -

You need not hurry back. Stay all next week if you prefer if necessary. If you want me to get you an excursion ticket coming back, you better let me know before the end of the week so I can get the ticket to you if you are ready to come back then.

I haven't cashed Mary's check & don't expect to use any of it. - Think Ellen better try to hold all insurance policies until insurance companies satisfy her they are ready to pay out.

Give the history of the policies and the amount all for the interest. - Ellen better look over the policies carefully & see if any <sup>assume that all</sup> heads them.
provide for double liability for any cause that she could claim under or if any provided for such benefit or medical expense or Hospital bills.

Ellen probably need not be in a hurry to start estate proceedings in the probate court if she is to be back in youngstown later. <sup>whether it is really necessary to go through estate proceedings</sup> if there is no will.

Has Ellen & the girls, or Mary also, come back with you even if they can't to avoid they are not going back next night away or come later if they can't - whatever they want to do.

Declan #5. - Can probably send you a little more during the week if I don't have to get you a ticket. Paid interest today on our mortgage.

The children are fine. Brown is fast rapidly clearing up.
Bill seems to be feeling well & is getting along well with the children.
Weather has been fine all week.

It was awful sad that Bill had to have such a terrible time of it, but it must be a mercy that he doesn't have to endure it any more.
