Dear Eveline,

You are in my thoughts constantly and I wonder that I don't get off many letters instead of none!

I wish Morny and Belden were here with us right this minute - John is making firewood out of all sorts of wooden box scraps and keeping a camp fire going. Caroline is writing a letter to a Chinese friend in Peiping.
Only one other child here just now.

Your letter meant a great deal to us all.

And so much I think of our family gathering and how vividly we felt the living presence of Aunt Ellie - and Mother. Sometimes it seems to me now, as I see, that they two had come again into that closeness of understanding that went all through the years here in physical being. I hope we can pass on to our children something of the real qualities of life - "personality laden with truth." What a wonderful heritage we have.
I wish you were nearer by so we could talk of these things that touch us deeply.

And how well I know that you are missing beyond measure the frequent letters and news of your "Lady." My heart goes out to you ever so much love, Mary W. H. D.
