

from
Mary Hadley

29 CHURCH STREET
CORTLAND, NEW YORK

10 October 38

Dear Turms, for "T & T"

Unless there's a blizzard or so you may expect to see me rolling into your parking space about 3 p.m. next Monday afternoon.

Can't wait to look at all your pretty things & eat some of them!
also their intellectual feast!

My special guest is Mrs.
Zolhoffer (I think that's spelled more or less right) from California, who is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Sawyer. Dr. Sawyer is fit Prof at the Normal - when absence of any kind prevents his going to class Mrs. S. takes his place as she is an ex fit teacher in High School. Both give splendid book reviews & Mrs. S. coaches amateur dramatics & both are in demand for papers on various lit subjects.

Mrs. Higgins.

Am terribly sorry, Mrs. Kellogg,
- Librarian, you know - isn't back yet from State Library Meeting.

Maybe one of her - but probably not.

It was grand to hear you! See you soon, and I hope, ever yours & Lydia's with so much love, Mary.

G. Lubas
2100 Walnut Street
Philadelphia, Penna.

Mrs. Henry T. Paulson
936 North Harvey Avenue
Oak Park
Illinois

