Dear Gertrude,

Thank you for your letter. It was good of you to write and tell me how things are at Sister Ellis'. I have sent it on to Charles and asked him to forward it along to Katharine so they will know also.

I am so glad I went up to Elvina and had the little visit with my sister and all the rest of you of course, and so satisfactory that I was able to see so much of E.

I have been on a mad rush all day and not all through yet shutting off plumbing for winter putting away coats, doilies and other summer paraphernalia am just starting to do my over Sunday marketing and will drop this miserable note at Oxford but, with it goes much love to all of you

Auntie Joe
