Dear Ellen: in a letter

November 21, 1932.

Jack & I wish you a joyous birthday and many happy returns of the day.

We had a letter from Harriet last month telling us Will has not been well. We sincerely hope he has fully recovered.

How is Mother Belden? We always think of her at this season and recall the bounteous Thanksgiving dinner we had at 108 East College Street and the enjoyable hours we spent at the family gathering.
How nice it is we have these memories.

It is a little early but I want to tell you that we have planned not to send Christmas gifts to anyone this year. For even in boom times many people take Christmas as a burden because they feel obliged to do as well or better, and send gifts in competition. So we are going to send out just a card with a personal line of greeting and love.

Remember us to the members of the Belden family when you write them. With love to yourself Will, Ellen and Mary.

As Ever,
Cora.
