

Monday Morning

Bessie darling,

I think of you and all your family even if I don't write, and the interesting things the children say and do are constantly welcome news, and I rejoice that your husband is improving. He must not work too hard. That I know with his temperament is not easy. You are both workers, hard workers. I do so much wish you lived near. Many and I have been wondering how we could manage a visit next summer from you and your family. The distance is so great - and the expense, also, also other things.

We have a good prospect of meeting our Philium plan to a Conservatory Prof, who is to be married this spring, to a → a widow with one child.

We keep comfortable with our old furnace. Our apartment is very bright & sunny when there is any sun.

(10 30 am - Saturday)

Your letter with interesting address has just come. I may has just it come - Give with love to your E S B.

I get in time or will write more -

Dear Punt; I think the Lady is much better than she was. We went riding today, first in a number of miles, and quite a little ride,

Tras.

Love
Mary

Jan. 27

Please return Mr. Burque's letter & mine to him by way of Elmy, asking her to send it right away,