Dear Professor Wyckoff,

It is a shame that the treasury of this Union ~~should~~ has not been transferred to you long ere this; but the fact is, it is a treasury of debt rather than of money, & that has really been the reason for my neglect of courtesy. I am sorry that in putting into your hands a nominal balance (Seventy-three cents) I must owe to a bill unpaid due to Ex-Sec. C. W. Park, of Five $\frac{25}{100}$ (or $\frac{25}{100}$) Dollars. Our expenditures really out-run our receipts & will continue to, unless, as Dr. Carey wishes we take up a subscription.

I can't lay my hands now on the printer's receipt.

ion at our annual meeting at Clifton-springs, N. Y. (June 12-19).

- However, here is my statement at adjournment, + also since to date:

On adjournment at Binghamton July 11/89, I had + reported a balance in treasury

"library fund" of five⁰⁰ Dollars; which should we become able, ought to be kept separate.)
