

College for Women, Cleveland
Feb 24th 1899

My dear Mrs. Belden.

My journey
to Cleveland was made very pleasant by meeting unexpectedly at Elgin a friend - not the best friend.
But one whom it was a pleasure to meet.

There is an important work to be done here - But so much to fight against.
So different from Oberlin -

I cannot tell you how sweet are the memories of the brief sojourn in your home, dear Mrs. Belden.

I do hope we may meet again - especially that my dear mother may have that pleasure.
Miss Rankin has been most kind in aiding me to find a steno-grapher. We have had several conversations over the telephone.

Will you please remember me most kindly to all your dear children, also the others in the home - I pray that Miss Holmsted's brother has ere this begun to recover. But more than all, that they may find a true Refuge in the Lord Jesus in their

Sonno -

Sweet say good night, dear Mrs. Belden, may you & yours be blessed abundantly - God bless you.
Very sincerely yours
Elizabeth - Davis
