

Sincere Chinese Christians

1. U.S. Mis. Record, Mar. 1890, p. 63:— Supt. Masters, of the Chinese Mission San-Francisco, writes Sept.
17: <sup>2</sup> Two of our best givers have set off to China as preachers of Gospel. One is Lum Foon, merchant When he set up in business he made a vow that if God wd prosper him in business to the extent of making $2,000, he'd devote rest of life to preach Gospel to his fellow countrymen.
He engaged a private tutor & spent hundreds of dollars in getting an education. His wife wanted him to give $1,000 every year to the Missionary Society & stick to his business, but he felt bound to pay his vow. He has given up what was becoming a splendid business & is now laboring with his wife in China as a self-supporting Missionary. These are the men that Lieut.
Wood says become X<sup>ps</sup> for $4 per month!
