

going to take care of the little girl next door while her mother goes to the hospital for baby brother. Flora was two last November. She is a live wire, but Jim sure will get along fine. She used to bite or pinch or choke Teddy whenever she got the chance, but she plays with him quite nicely now, but needs watching.

We are so glad for the sent-in letters, and so overjoyed to hear of Mother's progress and the

Dear Eveline, -

I wanted to write you a real letter, but I know Lester is anxious to get the snapshots off, and besides it is just time for the mail man and also for Teddy's breakfast.

Lester sends his love, prettiest thanks for the savvy little puppy and the pretty handkerchief.

to feel like it. - We were to try any other time,

I have been thinking of you so much lately!
With your moving. If you're like me, you'll still be getting things settled a year from now.
Moving is terrible, but you will get so much pleasure and freedom in your own home.
I am expecting a letter from you.

It was so nice of you to remember his birthday. We borrowed a movie camera again and took a 100 foot roll of film. I wish a frame!
When he'd hear the camera he'd stop playing and put on the most distressed look! I hope we didn't photograph too much of it.
He walked a few steps before he was a year old, but is not really walking yet. He can go five or six feet when