

So wish you a Christmas
That's full of good cheer
Followed by happy days
All through the year!
Believe + Love
Red + Coral.

We have been planning and wishing you some Christmas too, but haven't had the opportunity to get down to the point to buy them as yet. So hope we can get them to you and of you.

Hope the Christmas season is one of happiness for all of you.
Coral.

before Beeson goes back to college. We have been very busy, for which we are thankful. We want to Stamford to have Thanksgiving with Ted. Now we are expecting him home for Christmas. Coral has just had a bad siege of trench mouth — of all things! Her vacation will be spent sleeping and studying, I suppose. Not so exciting but it could be worse.

Evelina. I am so glad the family prevailed upon you to write the book on the party. It is awfully well done — in every way. We are proud of it —
