Dear Mother: -

Please excuse the pencil. I am at the office and seem to have forgotten my pen.

Received a nice letter from you and Ellen yesterday and also Sylvia received letters from both of you this week which she appreciated very much.

I am moving from my present room as the others are taking another house where they will not have room to spare for me. My mail can still be addressed Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis in fact just "Corvallis" seems to reach me.

It is summer at last after such a long period of rain. The roses are out to quite an extent and of course earlier flowers like lilacs & other flowering shrubs which stay in blossom a long time in this cool climate.

I have lots of work from now on to finish up my project which I want to complete by July first.

My new address is care of Mrs. M. A. Williams 537 Jefferson Ave.

Next Sunday is Mother's day, so please take my best wishes. I really don't like the idea of a special day for that purpose and I think they make the day sadder than it should be. I'm so glad you are ^{so} well on this Mother's day so we won't feel sad.

Nothing so very exciting seems to happen here as one day is just about like another so I can't think of much to interest you. It's much more interesting to tell about experiences in a new town where you are meeting a new set of friends or new conditions.

I send my love to Ellen & her family along with love to you.

Willie
