

My dear Audrey Bay:-

I have been writing you a letter for a long time and I don't know why I haven't written it. Thank you very much for the road pictures. I haven't given them to the girl for I didn't know as they were good enough as a treat since I had waited so long. How much do I owe you for them?

Sister, the other day it came over me with an awful start. Not soon you'll be right here and I have hadly cured myself yet of calling you "my little brother". You know I am expecting to work at the formation of the association are a sample and of course they are the chief - why, I'm not specially particular about seeing or getting in with them. I wish I weren't so particular. <sup>one or two were very nice.</sup>

Well, if I get the letter that I expect from home tomorrow, why I shall be back here another year. So goes life.

The Y. W. has got some new Glendale postal cards. Miss DeWore is ashamed to have them sent out, but I don't think they are so bad. They cost us a good deal. I'll send you one. Oh, sorry I have sent you so few postals, but next time I see any nice ones I'll get

Well - you are an energetic, energetic, energetic Right - after vacation here is going to be a dance given in the city (for which I presume that you have a desire) by the way Atlantic Oceanic Association that has been formed for the past quite a while of this.
 I rather want to go in a way - just to see two or three people. I understand King is going to be there. I have friends that who teaches at the Vermont College at Oxford and of course the Eskimo and the English (Mrs. Taylor) from the teacher - Mrs. (Mrs. Taylor) I want three for - but as for the rest, if the results for home for Easter. Are you glad? It is pretty soon now.

 Oh, you know my wife wants to go abroad very cheaply this summer. If you do, why let me know.
 I am planning to go if I can get up a crowd. I feel as if I ought to, though I'm not a bit anxious to. You probably know all about it.
 Are you making any plans for the summer? I hope you can get some thing worth while to do.
 One has a year school work going? You say you are, or else when you write me last, telling
