Mrs.

Wm. A. Belden,
Bristol, Conn.

107 Broad St.,
Bridgeton, N. J.,
March, 9, '91.

Dear Mrs. Belden;

I just want to send you a line expressing our deep sympathy with you and yours in this dark hour.

Mamma especially can sympathize with you, for she knows what paralysis means, having nursed her mother in it.

I wish you were here that I might, if possible, be of some use to you.

We hope the stroke may terminate favorably soon.

Do not take the time to make any response to this letter - rather note, (provided we can hear how Mr. Belden is through some other source) at this time, when every moment must be filled with doing and thinking of the loved ones, but sometime if you find the time, and are inclined to write me a letter, I shall be only too glad to receive it, and shall cherish it as a little bit of yourself.

Affectionately Yours,
Fannie J. McGalliard
