

Dear Mrs. Belden,

It is my lovely of you to ask me so cordially to your home, and I shall love to come. It will seem very much like going home to me to return where my last happy college year was spent and to the friends who made it so pleasant. Will you let me just drop in as though I had not been away? And please, Mrs. Bidder, you won't inconvenience yourself on my account, will you, for I should feel unhappy to give you trouble.

It seems best to leave here Thursday, the twelfth, and go directly to Cleveland where I shall spend a few days with Elizabeth Aborn, at her home, 59 4th Avenue. Then if it is convenient to you I will come out to Chalmers Saturday or Monday. I will write you from Cleveland just when to expect me.

I am sorry to miss the pleasant plan of meeting you in Cleveland. I hope you will have a very pleasant time there.

With love for the girls, I am very lovingly yours, Mary Emily Sinclair
Kelly Hall, September 10.
