U. S. PATENT, JULY 1, 1879.

Camden Dec 23/89.

My dearest Ellen:

I shall have to waste this sheet, for I haven't a single postal in my pocket, to my surprise. I am in room 25, "West Jersey Hotel" Camden N.J.; arrived here about 7 am., my train from NY (Broad-st.) having been delayed over an hour. I spent Sunday at Carrie's, after calling on Lester Wells & Davis in Newark; & have seen Ed. Bliss at East-Orange (45 Clinton-st.) today. I received & answered Pres.<sup>s</sup> Rendell's dispatch (from you?) this p. m., & intend to leave here for home tomorrow - or is it today? Tuesday on 8 am train.

Lovingly Yours

Mrs. W. H. Belden
Bridgeport, N. J.

W. H. Belden.
