For W. H. Belden:

My Dear Sir:

My friend Mr. W. M. Patton, who writes the enclosed, is a member of a grocery firm in Philadelphia, with whom I do business, and a very active worker in his Church in Camden.

I can only say by way of apology to you, that, when talking with him last Tuesday, "I didn't know he was loaded".

Could you arrange to gratify him without inconvenience, I would surely ask your kind consideration of the matter.

As it will be too late to answer today, I will stop a few minutes after Church tomorrow
