

NEW BEARDSLY HOUSE,

GEO. H. STENGR. PROP'R.

West Winster Ct., April 18th 1892

Rev. W. H. Belden

Dear Brother

Mr Hyatt

is ill, and I will write for him.

He has not been able to attend one preaching service since coming to Winster. He took a heavy cold the first Saturday that we were here, and though he was able to occupy his pulpit the first Sabbath morning, he was obliged to preach sitting in his chair. I think the care and work and breaking up of old ties, together with the heavy cold have been just too much for him.
Now the doctor thinks that he is coming around all right, and that he will be up to-morrow.

NEW BEARDSLEY HOUSE,

GEO. H. SPENCER, PROP'R.

West Windsor, Ct.,

189

It was a great pleasure to him to hear from you. but he wants me to tell you that ~~as yet~~ all his papers are packed and that letters with them ~~will not be~~ not be over-sensitive about ~~unpublished~~ letters, for we all know and the people do, just how you felt about the gifts that came to you outside of your Church. but as soon as he receives finds the letters, will send it to Mr Riggs as you request.

Our parsonage is not yet ready for us, but the ladies are working very hard for us, and are putting in new carpets and paper, and meanwhile they are boarding us at a good hotel.

You know, they say, it takes a

NEW BEARDSLEY HOUSE,

GEO. H. SPENCER, PROP'R.

West Winsted, Ct., 189

woman a long time to say anything, so I must take another sheet to tell you how kindly we are you and what a precious friendship this has been between us.

Mother would like to be remembered very warmly to you and Mrs. Belden.

With much love to your dear wife, I remain yours truly Gertrude F. Wyatt