My dear Mrs. Belden, Nov. 6/08.

We are planning to spend Sunday Nov. 8 in Dublin. I shall wish my S. S. class at 9 A. M. They go. We shall be delighted to accept your hearty invitation, you are most welcome. I hope to have a lovely visit. I must close now. It will be such a treat to be in your home again. Our train is leaving just before midnight but they have thrown chairs to passengers. I hope to see you in Dublin in a few days.
